

as a trucker we cannot always get a local radio station far enough out of an area to make choices on wich way to go around a town in case of accidents or other problems. xm's instant weather and traffic is a very important service and it helps to keep us out of the city's already heavy traffic.